

EMTEK Held Anti-Corruption, Bribery, and Illegal Donations Training

Jakarta, 20 January 2022 - In order to support the anti-corruption movement and uphold integrity in the workplace, PT Elang Mahkota Teknologi Tbk (“EMTEK”) has held training on anti-corruption, bribery and illegal donations. In the training, EMTEK presented resource persons Ir. Agus Rahardjo, M.S.M. as Chairman of the Corruption Eradication Commission (KPK) of the Republic of Indonesia for the 2015-2019 period, attended by the entire Board of Commissioners, Directors, and employees of EMTEK. Ir. Agus Rahardjo, M.S.M. as a resource person said that this training is important because the ability to understand and eradicate corruption is one of the steps to improve the quality of the implementation of sustainable corporate development.

EMTEK is committed to continuing to organize this anti-corruption training, especially because our company is one of the largest holding companies in Indonesia so it has a strategic role in preventing corruption. This training is carried out regularly every year as one of the company's efforts to continuously improve the quality of human resources.

Besides being expected to be an extension of the KPK in fulfilling various anti-corruption learning activities, the existence of all levels of EMTEK is also expected to be a bridge in implementing anti-corruption education in every work division environment and in daily life.
